

VOL. X—No. 13. FIRST EDITION SOUTH AMERICA. LATE NEWS BY STEAMER.

The Panama Revolution—The Paraguayan War—Trouble Among the Allies.

The following are the details of the news from South America by the steamer Rising Star, which arrived at New York yesterday.

The Panama Revolution.

The Panama Revolution. The Panama Herald of July 7 has the following:—The month of July in the politics of Panama was a stormy one.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

and by working on the ignorance and the fanaticism of the simple inhabitants of the country, had so fired their national enthusiasm that men and women were flocking by thousands around the flag.

Deploable State of Affairs in the Argentine Republic.

A correspondent writing from Mendoza under date of the 1st of June, gives a deplorable account of the state of affairs in the Argentine Republic.

The Yellow Fever—Another Revolution on the Coast.

The Lima, June 28, correspondent of the New York Tribune says:—During the past fortnight the deaths from yellow fever have averaged several per day.

The following are the details of the news from South America by the steamer Rising Star, which arrived at New York yesterday.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

The revolution consisted in the acting President Diaz handing over the Government to the commander of the forces, General Ponce.

after giving a series of concerts there, will visit the other colonies.

The Troubles in Tennessee—The Situation Becoming Desperate.

SECOND EDITION LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

The Treaty Between Bavaria and the United States.

FROM BALTIMORE TO-DAY.

The Reverend Johnson Testimonial—The Effects of the Heat.

FROM BALTIMORE TO-DAY.

The Reverend Johnson Testimonial—The Effects of the Heat.

THE JOHNSON BANQUET.

Complimentary Dinner From the Citizens of Baltimore to our Minister to England.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

The banquet tendered by a large number of prominent citizens of Baltimore to the Hon. Reverend Johnson, our Minister to the Court of St. James, prior to his departure for England, was held at the residence of the military Academy at Brandywine, on the 14th inst.

THE EUROPEAN MARKETS.

This Morning's Quotations.

By Atlantic Cable.

LONDON, July 16—A. M.—Consols for money, 94 1/2 @ 94; and for account, 94. United States 5-20s, 72 1/2; Erie, 43 1/2; Illinois Central, 92.

FRANKFURT, July 16—A. M.—United States 5-20s, 76 1/2.

PARIS, July 16—A. M.—The Bourne is quiet. Berets 70 francs, 37 centimes.

LIVERPOOL, July 16—A. M.—Cotton dull; the sales will probably reach 8000 bales. Pork 77s. Bacon 48s. Other articles unchanged.

FROM BAVARIA.

The New Treaty with the United States Concerning Naturalized Citizens.

Berlin, July 16.—The following is a free translation, from the German, of the text of the Naturalization Treaty, recently concluded between Bavaria and the United States:—

Article 1. Subjects of the Kingdom of Bavaria, who have become naturalized citizens of the United States of North America, and have uninterruptedly lived during five years, in the United States, are to be considered as American citizens, and accordingly treated by Bavaria.

Article 2. A naturalized citizen of one State may be indicted and punished after he has returned into the territory of the other State, if he has committed any crime threatened with punishment before his emigration, provided the crime has not become obsolete according to the law of his original country.

Article 3. The treaty between the kingdom of Bavaria, on the one part, and the United States of North America, on the other part, concluded on the 12th of September, 1853, respecting the extradition of fugitive criminals, to be granted in certain cases, shall continue unchanged.

Article 4. If a Bavarian, naturalized in America, takes up his residence in Bavaria, without intending to return to America, he is to be considered as renouncing his naturalization in the United States. Likewise, an American, naturalized in Bavaria, is to be considered as renouncing his naturalization in the United States without intending to return to Bavaria. The renunciation may be considered as valid if the naturalized citizen of one State lives for more than two years in the territory of the other State.

Article 5. The present treaty will be valid immediately after the exchange of ratifications, and will be valid for ten years. If one party fails to announce the intention to repeat it within six months prior to its expiration, it shall remain in force until the expiration of twelve months after the notice to the other party of its intention to repeat.

Article 6. The present treaty shall be ratified by His Majesty the King of Bavaria, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Munich within twelve months from this date (May 28, 1868).

FROM THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

American and British Whaling News—The King a Lepor-Communication Between the Islands.

HONOLULU, June 24, via San Francisco, July 16.—The American whaling barque Peru, from Alaska, arrived here on the 18th of June. The ship Anna Kimball, from Puget Sound, arrived on the same day. The British ship Scioto arrived from Japan on the following day, and the Anna Kimball called the same day for Shanghai. The Minister of the Interior for these islands has been censured by the Legislature for overstepping the bounds of his authority.

An annual subsidy of thirty thousand dollars for two years has been offered to a company for steamship communication between these islands. The King is again reported ill. It is now generally believed here that he has leprosy. Business is very much depressed.

The Hanted Season. Special Dispatch to The Evening Telegraph. ROCHESTER, July 16.—For the thirty-six hours ending at midnight last night, twenty-one cases of prostration from the heat were reported, six of them fatal. The weather is decidedly cooler this morning, rain having fallen in this vicinity yesterday afternoon, but not a drop in the city. Vegetation is burning up under the intense heat.

Struck by Lightning. Special Dispatch to The Evening Telegraph. BOSTON, July 16.—The Western Union Telegraph office, at Ellsworth, Maine, was struck by lightning yesterday afternoon, setting the building on fire, which was entirely consumed.

Obituary. SCHENECTADY, N. Y., July 16.—Commodore Georgevoort, of the United States navy, died suddenly of congestion of the brain, in this city, last evening, aged fifty-six years. He will be buried at Greenwood on Friday.

The Heat in the Northwest. Special Dispatch to The Evening Telegraph. CHICAGO, July 16.—Two men died from sunstroke yesterday afternoon. Fatal cases are reported from numerous points in the Northwest.

FROM OMAHA.

Fatal Railroad Accident. Special Dispatch to The Evening Telegraph. OMAHA, July 16.—A serious railroad accident occurred eighteen miles east of Laramie City last evening. Just as the westward bound freight train descended the grade, and while the locomotive was on Dale Creek bridge, the rear car of a gravel train which was crossing the summit, going east, became detached, and ran with terrific force down the grade, striking the caboose on the freight train, demolishing it entirely. Sheriff Laird, from Laramie, was seriously injured, and William Clark, of Cheyenne, received injuries resulting in his death this morning.

FROM ST. LOUIS.

McCooles will Fight any Man in America—A Collision—Return of General Blair to his Home. Special Dispatch to The Evening Telegraph. ST. LOUIS, July 16.—McCooles denies receiving a challenge from Heenan. He will accept one from any man in America.

The Pacific train containing delegates to the Radical State Convention, was run into by a freight train. Both locomotives were smashed, but no one was killed or injured. The weather is hot; thermometer 102 in the shade. There has been nine cases of sunstroke.

Gen. F. P